

History – Me and My World – When Grandma and Grandad Were Little (Changes within Living Memory)

What I already know

- Some similarities and differences between the past and now.
- What 'the past' is from the stories I have heard

What I will learn (Sticky Knowledge)

- What a timeline is and how my life can be represented on one.
- What life was like when my Grandma and Grandad were our age. We will follow the children's interests and may find out about toys, school, clothes, food.
- How some things have changed and some things have stayed the same.
- How to ask questions to find out information.

Key Vocabulary

Past – has already happened

Now – happening at the moment

Same

Different

Timeline – a way to show changes over time

